

A no call list should be just that. I pay for my phone bill, not anyone else. Now if they want to pay for my phone bill then they should be able to call me at home. When I ask then for their home phone number I'm told that is not my concern! Where is the fairness in this type of practice.

Thank You

Richard Burnworth